

Antares Hotel ****

A few kilometres from the Old City, near the international airport of Verona, the Hotel Antares is happy to offer its services and ample green space, an oasis of relaxation and well-being, an innate desire to offer hospitality to the traveller. With these ingredients, together with 200 bright and modern rooms, excellent restaurant with typical Italian cuisine, a swimming pool and a meeting room. They get a unique combination of hospitality and quality.

Sport Facilities

Equipped with a football pitch, where you can conduct two training sessions daily and a gym your team will have everything needed for a successful training camp. Its beautiful weather year round makes Antares Hotel the ideal destination for your professional training camp.

Pricing

Pricing available upon request, just contact our team and we will be happy to design a package that will suit your needs and your budget.

Travel

If it's a commercial flight or a charter flight you require, our team will find the most suitable most competitive option available to you.